

(e) The Ministry of Rural Development provides financial and technical support to States and Union Territories to conduct a BPL Census in the beginning of the Five Year Plan to identify the rural poor who could be assisted under its various programmes. Programmes such as, Samoorna Grameen Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) and Swaranjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY), a wage employment and self-employment programmes respectively are implemented in the rural areas of the country including Bihar. Under Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY), assistance is provided to the rural poor for construction of houses, which has a direct bearing on their living conditions. With effect from 2nd Feb., 2006, National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (NREGA) is being implemented in the selected 200 districts of the country. The Act provides for enhancement of livelihood security of the rural households by providing at least 100 days of guaranteed wage employment in every financial year to every household whose adult member volunteer to do unskilled manual work. In Bihar, it is reported that 618.37 lakh mandays were generated under SGRY, 1.31 lakh swarozgaris were assisted under SGSY and 3.32 lakh houses were constructed under Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) during 2005-06.

  - (v) Review of Kerala and North Eastern States by Secretary in September, 2006.
  - (vi) Meeting of the Central Employment Guarantee Council was held on 27.9.2006 and a through review of NREGA was undertaken.
  - (vii) Performance Review Committee meeting of Southern and Western region at Delhi on 9.10.2006.
  - (viii) Conference of Project Directors, DRDA, at Delhi on 16-17, October, 2006.
  - (ix) Meeting with State Secretaries and District Programme Coordinators on NREGA held on 01.11.2006.
  - (x) Minister (RD) and Secretary (RD) also reviewed performance of NREGA of States at State Headquarters.
- (c) A State-wise progress report on the implementation of NREGA Act is given in the enclosed Statement (See below).
- (d) The process of implementation has been affected due to elections in a few States, on-set of rains and inadequate staff with the implementing agencies. Pace of implementation of NREGA is also based on the pace of demand for job cards and then for employment. Thus, States are at different level of implementation. Instructions have been issued by the Ministry from time to time to speed up the process of implementation of the Act.
